

MOMMY Game

Print one game per child on card paper. Laminating will ensure durability. Cut out the MOMMY strip (one piece) and the 12 letter and picture cards. Place all the cards in a hat or basket. Have the children take out one card at a time without looking - if they get a letter card, they place it on the game board; if they get a picture card, it goes back into the hat/basket. First one to spell out the word MOMMY wins.

This can be played as a co-operative game at circle with children taking turns to pull a card out of the hat/basket to see how quickly they can spell the word MOMMY.
